

CAMP SWATARA

LIFEGUARD - JOB DESCRIPTION

POSITION: Lifeguard

PURPOSE: To ensure the health and safety of aquatic participants at the pool, lake, and off-site locations.

GENERAL POSITION DESCRIPTION: This is a summer position lasting from approximately Memorial Day to Labor Day during our summer camp season and busiest campground season. Summer Camp runs for approximately 10 weeks in June through August and is a co-ed residential program for children and youth in 1st-12th grade, as well as several programs for adults with intellectual disabilities. The Family Camping Center (FCC) has 140 sites for tent, cabin, and RV camping for individuals, families, groups, and churches. Lifeguards are responsible to ensure the health and safety of aquatic participants at the pool, lake, and off-site locations by recognizing and responding to emergencies, performing cleaning and maintenance duties, assisting with special aquatic events, and operating the FCC miniature golf course on weekdays. Benefits include a weekly or hourly salary, as well as room and board, if desired.
